

ROOTS WITH BILLY PINNELL

>Billy Pinnell is a true veteran of Australian radio - he can't sing, but loves talking about those who can

Coco's Lunch BLUEPRINT

Since forming in 1998 this extraordinary female sextet have released six albums dedicated to the art of acappella. Their new release, nominated for Best World Music album in the 2007 ARIAs, is another outstanding collection of originals performed sans instrumentation, [barring percussion] and on two songs, flute. Each of the ten compositions [four are lyricless] offer something unique, voices weaving around each other, some in harmony, others providing rhythmic backdrops. This album's accessibility excites, for each complex vocal workout there are stories of romance and enlightenment.
